

TROY

ObstetLUBE

WHAT IS TROY OBSTET LUBE?

It is a non-greasy, non-irritant physical barrier product for topical application to animals that can be used in rectal examinations or obstetric procedures.

- Preservative: 1.375 g/ L benzalkonium chloride
- Poison Schedule: Unscheduled
- Physical Description: A slightly opalescent to white, viscous liquid free from suspended matter.

WHY CHOOSE TROY OBSTET LUBE?

- ✓ Cost-effective lubricant for use in rectal examinations or obstetric procedures.
- ✓ Water Soluble – making the product easy to remove with water.
- ✓ Available in 5 L container.
- ✓ Australian made.

HOW TO USE TROY OBSTET LUBE?

Dose Rate: Apply liberally over hands, arms and instruments.

Caution: Note that benzalkonium chloride is spermicidal. Do not use for artificial insemination procedures.

Withholding Periods: Withholding periods have not been established for this product.

Trade Advice - Export Slaughter Interval (ESI): An ESI has not been established for this product.

Storage: Store below 30 °C (room temperature).

Please read label for full product information.